Thomas P. Gallagher, Esq., Gallagher & Gallagher, Somers Point, New Jersey, for Petitioner;
Robin L. Broderick, Esq., U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C., for Respondent.

DECISION¹

On December 18, 2006, the parties filed a joint stipulation concerning the injuries received by petitioner, Lynn Paumier. Ms. Paumier filed a petition for compensation on March 20, 2006. In her petition, Ms. Paumier alleged that the tetanus vaccine, which she received on April 8, 2003, caused her brachial neuritis. Ms. Paumier sought compensation for that injury.

Respondent denies that Ms. Paumier's brachial neuritis was caused by the tetanus vaccine. Nevertheless, the parties agree to the joint stipulation, attached hereto as Appendix A.

Vaccine Rule 18(b) states that all decisions of the special masters will be made available to the public unless they contain trade secrets or commercial or financial information that is privileged and confidential, or medical or similar information whose disclosure would clearly be an unwarranted invasion of privacy. When such a decision or designated substantive order is filed, petitioner has 14 days to identify and to move to delete such information before the document's disclosure. If the special master, upon review, agrees that the identified material fits within the banned categories listed above, the special master shall delete such material from public access.

The undersigned finds said stipulation reasonable and adopts it as the decision of the Court in awarding damages, on the terms set forth therein.

Damages awarded in that stipulation include:

A lump sum of $51,700.00 in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).

In the absence of a motion for review filed pursuant to RCFC, Appendix B, the clerk is directed to enter judgment in case 06-220V according to this decision and the attached stipulation.

Any questions may be directed to Shana Z. Siesser at (202) 357-6358.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
